

Robert Gill (Bob)

Behavioral Health Board member since March 2012.

According to Mr. Gill, he has been involved in making change by working closely with Supervisors Dave Cortese and Cindy Chavez on housing and Crisis Intervention Team Training for law enforcement in Santa Clara County. He has done this as a Behavioral Health Board member, Housing Commissioner with City of San Jose, and Seniors Commissioner, City of San Jose. According to Bob Gill, he is a recipient of the Martin Luther King Award for community service through his involvement in building the Sikh Gurdwara Sahib Temple in San Jose where hundreds of people receive food daily as well as other needed assistance by people in the community with focus on the Indian Community. Mr. Gill was recognized by the Senate at Washington D.C. in 2008 under President G. W. Bush. Mr. Gill states he was involved in the import agreement with Asia to control pricing to avoid gouging with President Bill Clinton. Mr. Gill has been a business owner.