

Parent, Relative and Foster Family Support Services utilizes the wraparound philosophy.

The 10 Principles of the wraparound process are...

- ◆ Family voice and choice
- ◆ Team based
- ◆ Natural supports
- ◆ Collaboration
- ◆ Community-based
- ◆ Culturally competent
- ◆ Individualized
- ◆ Strengths based
- ◆ Persistence
- ◆ Outcome based

- Tony Dorsett

The Parent, Relative and Foster Family Support Services provides voluntary stabilization and transition for all children and their Parent, Relative, NRFEM or Foster Parent caregivers who need support at anytime to prevent removal or placement disruption or support successful family reunification.

We provide families with support in the home, school and/or community and may be accessed as an adjunct to therapeutic services that may be needed or already in place for the family.

Medi-Cal and Medical Necessity eligibility are not required to receive services.
