

David H. Tran, Behavioral Health Board Member since September 2019.

David is a San José native with robust experience in community and non-profit development in San Jose and Washington DC. He earned his bachelor's degree from San José State University in Psychology and Behavioral Science. David is active in the Vietnamese faith community and currently works in public policy for the City of San Jose.