Bill Wilson Center

a hotline to centralize referrals to temporary housing programs

The Here4You call center hotline is designed to centralize referrals to temporary housing programs for people needing shelter.

Here4You can help:

- Match people to emergency shelters, including transportation
- Provide assistance to sustain current housing situation
- Make referrals and linkages to community resources

In addition to referrals for openings at emergency shelters/ temporary housing programs, BWC's staff will help those seeking rental assistance by directing them to additional Homeless Prevention Services.
